ORAL JUDGEMENT

Shri G.D.Bhatt, learned advocate for revision petitioner (defendant-tenant) makes a statement that to day he has received an information on phone from Mr. Hakim, the learned advocate for the defendant-tenant who appeared in the trial court as well as in the appellate court that there was a settlement in between both the parties and the defendant-tenant has handed over possession of the suit premises to the revision opponent plaintiff-landlords, and therefore, now there does not remain any cause to pursue. In view of this statement, this Civil Revision Application shall stand disposed of accordingly, with a liberty to move appropriately in case of difficulty in future. Rule is discharged, with no order as to costs. Interim relief granted earlier shall stand vacated.
